

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, It is a well-known historical fact that the Twedt family has resided in the State of South Dakota for 110 years since emigrating from Norway; and,

WHEREAS, Warm family bonds are critical to our lives and society; and,

WHEREAS, The Twedts, during their 110 years of residence in this State, have made numerous invaluable contributions for the improvement and advancement of the interests of the State of South Dakota and our society as a whole, in the fields of politics, government, agriculture, business, health, and education; and,

WHEREAS, It is a tribute to the strength of those bonds in your family that you are gathering together for this celebration; and,

WHEREAS, The Twedt family reunion is worthy of public recognition in the State of South Dakota, and it is fitting and proper that the Governor make note of this special occasion:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim July 27, 1980, as

TWEDT FAMILY REUNION DAY

In South Dakota.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Fourteenth Day of July, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty
